

The Lock Down & Cheer Up Blast

Some humour for members of: Tawa District Mid-Week Table Tennis Club

An illustration of a woman and a man holding a large white sign. The woman on the left has short brown hair and is wearing a blue jacket. The man on the right has dark hair, wears glasses, and a blue suit. Both are smiling and pointing upwards with their right index fingers. The sign they are holding has the text 'Stay at Home' in a large, dark blue, serif font. Below this text, in a smaller, dark blue, sans-serif font, is the text '#Coronavirus #COVID19'. The background is a light gray and white checkerboard pattern.

Miscellaneous Nonsense!

Then I suddenly remembered that I was listening to my iPod.

"Your blood sugar is high, but your salt, pepper, ketchup, mustard and grated cheese levels are fine."

Little Johnny is always being teased by the other neighbourhood boys for being stupid. Their favourite joke is to offer Johnny his choice between a nickel and a dime.

Little Johnny always takes the nickel. One day, after Johnny takes the nickel, a neighbour takes him aside and says "Johnny, those boys are making fun of you. Don't you know that a dime is worth more than a nickel even though it is smaller?"

Johnny grins and says "Well, if I took the dime, they'd stop doing it, and so far I've made $20".

I HATE IT WHEN I SEE SOME OLD PERSON AND THEN REALISE WE WENT TO HIGH SCHOOL TOGETHER.

Murphy says to Paddy, "What ya talkin into an envelope for?"
"I'm sending a voicemail."

While walking down the street one day a Member of Parliament is tragically hit by a truck and dies.

His soul arrives in heaven and is met by St. Peter at the entrance.

'Welcome to heaven,' says St. Peter.

'Before you settle in, it seems there is a problem.

We seldom see a high official around these parts, you see, so we're not sure what to do with you.'

'No problem, just let me in,' says the man.

'Well, I'd like to, but I have orders from higher up.

What we'll do is have you spend one day in hell and one in heaven.

Then you can choose where to spend eternity.'

'Really, I've made up my mind.

I want to be in heaven,' says the MP.

'I'm sorry, but we have our rules.'

And with that, St. Peter escorts him to the elevator and he went down, down, down to hell.

The doors open and he found himself in the middle of a green golf course.

In the distance is a clubhouse and standing in front of it are all his friends and other politicians who had worked with him.

Everyone is very happy and dressed in evening dress.

They run to greet him, shake his hand, and reminisce about the good times they had while getting rich at the expense of the people.

They played a friendly game of golf and then dined on lobster, caviar and champagne.

Also present is the devil, who really is a very friendly & nice guy who has a good time dancing and telling jokes.

They are having such a good time that before he realizes it, it's time to go.

Everyone gives him a hearty farewell and wave whilst the elevator rises....

The elevator rises and the door opens in heaven where St. Peter is waiting for him.

'Now it's time to visit heaven.'

So, 24 hours pass with the MP joining a group of contented souls moving from cloud to cloud, playing the harp and singing.

They have a good time and, before he realizes it, the 24 hours have gone by and St. Peter returns.

'Well, then, you've spent a day in hell and another in heaven.

Now choose your eternity.'

The MP reflects for a minute, then he answers: 'Well, I would never have said it before, I mean heaven has been delightful, but I think I would be better off in hell.'

So St. Peter escorts him to the elevator and he goes down, down, down to hell.

When the doors open he's in the middle of a barren land covered with waste and garbage.

He sees all his friends, dressed in rags, picking up the trash and putting it in black bags as more trash falls from above.

The devil comes over to him and puts his arm around his shoulder.

I don't understand,' stammers the MP.

'Yesterday I was here and there was a golf course and clubhouse, and we ate lobster and caviar, drank champagne, danced and had a great time.

Now there's just a wasteland full of garbage and my friends look miserable.

What happened?'

The devil looks at him, smiles and says, 'Yesterday we were campaigning.....Today you voted'.

"TRY TO AVOID THE BEER HAZARD ON THE NINETEENTH HOLE."

OK OK! It's not Xmas yet—but have a great one when it is!

"Why, Fred — you never did that BEFORE we were married!"

What did one ping pong ball say to the other ping pong ball?
"See you round.."

It's here! A protective coat for your nails so tough, it stands up to more hard knocks than your nails ever get.

We coated a ping-pong ball and played hard for two hours.

Tougher coatings and fronts that bounce back instead of breaking

The beautiful color didn't chip, peel or crack. Because a built-in base makes it bounce back instead of breaking. Imagine how all that strength helps protect your nails.

Lock Down Giggles

It's wonderful to see how Australian's are adhering to the social distancing rules. When I go shopping with my favourite bag people not only give me 1.5m but actually cross the road and run away! 🤔

I made the mistake of telling my husband an early symptom of COVID is loss of smell.
He has taken to passing gas in my vicinity and then when I react, informing me he is helpfully "performing a health check".
He taught the children the technique.
I may divorce him.
